Chapter 1 by Time Travelers

Eat
Shit
Sleep
Repeat

The life of a dog sounded simple, great actually. no drama, no exams, no complicated relationships. Just living, but then again dogs don't have Caden. A masterpiece who's personality is only matched by his god like features. My only problem was he hadn't exactly left the closet... yet. I closed my textbook and shuffled out of biology. Still clouded by my morning fog I made my way down the stairs towards room 113 for costume and makeup design. As I turned the corner half asleep someone ran into me...violently. The collision had such an impact I was sent flying backwards as a snowstorm of papers fluttered to the ground around me. I stood up mumbling to myself something about being late, when I locked eyes with none other than the god himself. Caden stood as well, face reddening with every sorry he wasted his breath on. But I didn't care, all I knew was that now I had an excuse to really talk to him.
